

OrphanAid Africa Volunteer Program 2013

OrphanAid Africa is a non-profit organization. It aims to support orphans and vulnerable children in Ghana through programs in care reform, education and development. Our goal is to ensure that children grow up in safe and permanent family settings with appropriate care and protection.

More info at: www.oafrica.org.

We are searching for flexible and ambitious individuals to help us this summer in Ayenyah, an extremely rural community in Ghana, a developing country in West Africa.

Individuals with travel experience and prior work with children is a plus.

You have to be at least 21 years old and speak fluent English in order to participate.

Period:

From 1st July to 31st August

The program fee is 800 € (1.032 $) per person and 2 weeks period and it covers:

- A position for volunteering.
- Administration cost for the volunteer program, before and during the participation in Ghana.
- Accommodation. You will have a bed in a shared room with volunteers of the same sex.
- 3 meals a day, at agreed times.
- Assistance in Ghana.
- Airport pickup, at the arrival and departure day.

Airfare to/from Ghana, Visa travel and health insurance are not included.

The vacant positions are:

- Librarian: To support in setting up the community center library, creating system for maintaining the library and organizing library programs and activities.
- ICT (Information and Communication Technologies): A volunteer who will help with an after school ICT program in the lab for our children. To do some administration work and grant writing.
- Teacher for our students with special needs. Trained and experienced teachers are preferred.
- Primary school assistant teacher. Trained and experienced teachers are preferred.
- Junior High School teaching assistant/administration worker. Trained and experienced teachers are preferred.
- Sport coach: To plan and run sports session with our students
- Math, English and science teacher at the Junior High School level to teach summer school. Trained and experienced teachers are preferred.

If you are you interesting, please sent us an email with your CV to: info@oafrica.org

VIDEO: <http://www.youtube.com/v/9F9-07DYCzQ>